7 VIRTUAL JAZZ CLUB CONTEST – 2016 EDITION

*The first edition of the International online contest
Organized by the 7 Virtual Jazz Club is now over*

Milan, Italy, December 19th 2016

The names of the winners of the first edition of the International Online Contest of Jazz Music organized by the 7 Virtual Jazz Club have been revealed and posted on our website www.7virtualjazzclub.net.

Each judge voted the eight finalists and the rankings were crossed to get the results.

The first prize went to the German saxophonist Nicole Johanntgen, with Flugmodus. She won 4000 euros in cash and artistic advertising.

The second prize went to the young Spanish band The Jazz Fingers, with Bill Tone. They won 2000 euros in cash and artistic advertising.

The third prize went to the Dominican pianist Miguel Andrés Tejada, with Rumbeando. He won 1000 euros in cash and artistic advertising.

For few votes the American pianist Yoonmi Choi doesn't get to the podium, and wins the fourth prize. The fifth prize goes to the Slovenian saxophonist Jaka Kopach and his American quartet, the sixth prize goes to the Dutch group Mn'Jam Experiment, the seventh prize goes to the American group D.O.G. Trio and the eighth prize and the Thai guitarist Pamai Chirdkiatisak.

The 7 Virtual Jazz Club wants to thank all the contestants and the International jury that collaborated to this first edition, hoping that the 2017 will get the same consensus.
